Secure messaging

- ▶ What's wrong with Skype/FB Messenger?
- ▶ Security properties:
  - ▶ End-to-end Confidentiality
  - ▶ Authentication
  - ▶ Perfect Forward Secrecy
  - ▶ Deniability
- ▶ Secure messaging tool: OTR
- ▶ Secure messaging tool: Signal

Secure multiparty messaging

- ▶ What is multiparty messaging?
- ▶ What's wrong with IRC/Viber groups?
- ▶ More security properties!
  - ▶ Transcript consistency
  - ▶ Room consistency
- ▶ Very few deployed secure multiparty messaging systems (only Signal groups?)

The Flute Protocol

- ▶ Flute is a secure multiparty messaging protocol
- ▶ Flute used to be a Celo and a Viola.
- ▶ Flute can work over IRC/XMPP/etc.
- ▶ Flute is currently implemented in Python over weechat
- ▶ Flute is an experiment

Flute workflow

- ▶ Every flute room has a captain that manages the room.
- ▶ 1) Alice establishes flute room and becomes room captain
- ▶ 2) Bob asks for room invite
- ▶ 3) Alice invites Bob to room (by passing him the crypto keys)
- ▶ 4) Charlie asks for room invite
- ▶ 5) Alice invites Charlie to room
- ▶ ...

Flute problems

- ▶ No room consistency
- ▶ No true message ordering
- ▶ Only one leader
- ▶ UX sucks (e.g. authentication, key management, etc.)
- ▶ Not deniable
